RULES OF THE PERSONNEL ADVISORY BOARD AND THE PERSONNEL DIVISION
1 CSR 20-4.010 - Appeals

3. Appeals Must be Submitted and Hearings Conducted Following the Procedures and Guides Provided in this Rule.

(A) Appeal submission and preparation for hearing are governed by the following provisions:

1. Appeals shall be written. The appeal may be filed by FAX, by mail, or by other delivery to the Board's office. The written appeal must provide substantially the following information: appellant's name; appointing authority and agency; the type of disciplinary action appealed; the effective date of the disciplinary action; the appellant's reason for appealing the disciplinary action; the appellant's response to the reasons given by the appointing authority; names of witnesses to be subpoenaed if a hearing is granted; a detailed description of any books, papers, or records to be subpoenaed, along with their location, and a statement of the reasons that the items are needed for the hearing; the name, address, telephone number and signature of the appellant's attorney, if any; the appellant's signed acknowledgement and certification of truth for the information supplied in the written appeal;

2. The Appellant may file the appeal on the form for appeal prescribed by the board. The information required for completion of that form shall be deemed sufficient to satisfy the requirement for a written appeal. The board will provide to the appellant or to the appointing authority, on request, a copy of the current form for appeal. The appointing authority shall deliver a copy of the form to any employee receiving appealable disciplinary action. The completed form or other written appeal must be received at the office of the board within thirty (30) days after the effective date of the disciplinary action appealed. A copy of the appellant's contentions set out in the appeal will be furnished to the appointing authority;

3. Appellants may represent themselves and handle their own cases but shall have the right to be represented by duly licensed attorneys. A party to an appeal cannot be represented by anyone other than a duly licensed attorney except that the appointing authority may appear by an employee in the agency. If either party intends to employ and be represented by an attorney, that party promptly shall notify the Personnel Advisory Board of the name and address of his/her attorney;

4. If either party to an appeal desires the issuance of a subpoena for any witness or records at any hearing, that party must apply for it sufficiently in advance of the hearing that the subpoena may be delivered to the requesting party by mail or by FAX at least one (1) day before the hearing. The requesting party shall provide the name and address of any witness subpoenaed, a detailed description of any records to be subpoenaed, and a statement of what is intended to be proved by the records. The Personnel Advisory Board issues the subpoena by request, but the service of the subpoena rests in the hands of the party requesting it. Service of the subpoena is to be effected in accordance with section 536.077, RSMo;

5. Upon the acceptance of an appeal, the appellant and appointing authority or their representatives may meet with the Personnel Advisory Board, at a time and place set by the board for a prehearing conference to determine the facts at issue. At the prehearing conference both parties may stipulate on mutually agreed matters relevant to the disciplinary action or the appeal may be resolved by agreement of the parties. If, during the prehearing conference, the case is not resolved and the appeal goes forward to a hearing before the Personnel Advisory Board, the board may confine the hearing to the law and facts at issue as stipulated by mutual agreement of the parties to the appeal; and

6. All motions or other pleadings by the parties shall be submitted in writing with a copy served or mailed to the opposing party. Parties to an appeal may amend their pleadings as a matter of course at any time before a responsive pleading is filed and served or if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is required and the action has not been set for hearing, the party may so amend it at any time within thirty (30) days after it is filed. Otherwise, a party may amend a pleading only by leave of the Personnel Advisory Board or by written consent of the adverse party; and leave shall be given freely when justice so requires. A party shall plead in response to an amended pleading within the time remaining for response to the original pleading or within ten (10) days after service of the amended pleading, whichever period may be the longer, unless the Personnel Advisory Board otherwise orders.

(B) Hearings Procedure. The conduct of hearings before the Personnel Advisory Board is subject to the following provisions:

1. Hearings will be held in the Office of the Personnel Advisory Board in Jefferson City, Missouri, unless a different location is specified by action of the board;

2. If no prehearing conference has been held, the board will make a determination of what questions are at issue based upon the notice of the disciplinary action and the appellant's contentions in the appeal prior to the taking of testimony. The hearing shall be confined to and come within the scope of law and facts that the board has determined to be at issue. The board may exclude evidence which is purely cumulative;

3. The board requires attendance at the hearing of the appeal of the person who imposed the discipline. If that person is not the appointing authority, it must be the subordinate to whom authority has been delegated;

4. The person conducting the hearing will read a statement citing the appropriate sections of the merit system law applicable to appeals;

5. The person conducting the hearing will read the charges of the appointing authority and the contentions of the appellant. By agreement these documents may be inserted in the record without reading before commencing the taking of testimony;

6. All witnesses will be sworn or affirmed. When possible, witnesses will stand to be sworn or affirmed;

7. The Personnel Advisory Board, on request of either party or on its own motion, may order that the witnesses be separated so as to preclude any witness, other than the parties and their attorneys, from hearing the testimony of other witnesses. When requested by the appellant, only one (1) person in addition to counsel shall remain in the room to represent the appointing authority;

8. The appointing authority will be required to present his/her case first. Experience has shown this method gives the board a clearer and quicker picture of the issues. This is not a shift of the burden of proof, but is only the burden of going ahead with the proof;

9. The Personnel Advisory Board may take notice of its rules, the class specifications, official records of the Personnel Division and the pay plan without the necessity of an offer in evidence;

10. The Personnel Advisory Board may fix the total time to be allowed for oral argument;

11. At the hearing the entire proceedings will be tape recorded. After the board announces its Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, decision and order, or at an earlier time if the Board determines that the interest of efficient administration would be served, a copy of the recording will be made available to either party. The board will not transcribe the record from aural to written form. The cost of a transcription will be borne by the requesting party. The transcription may be performed by any commercial business or agency selected by the requesting party; The board will forward directly to the selected business or agency a copy of the aural recording;

12. No rehearing shall be granted from a final decision of the Personnel Advisory Board; however, at any time prior to issuance of the decision, the board may require the production of additional documents and records, the presentation of additional testimony after prior notification to both parties, or both;

13. An appeal set for hearing may be continued by the Personnel Advisory Board for cause deemed sufficient or by consent of both parties to the appeal. However, a continuance will not be granted except for compelling cause or to serve the ends of justice. If an appellant requests and is granted a continuance, the Personnel Advisory Board, in its discretion, may deny the appellant any compensation for that portion of time lost by reason of the continuance made at the request if the appellant's appeal is finally sustained. If an appeal scheduled for hearing is not reached, it shall be reset and given precedence over any subsequent appeal;

14. The finding of the board will be announced in writing subsequent to the hearing. Parties will be notified by letter sent by certified mail. The finding will be made as provided in section 36.390(5), RSMo; and

15. As appropriate and where no specific rule governs the issue, the Personnel Advisory Board will utilize the rules of the civil procedure for guidance.

(C) Special Hearing Procedures. In the hearing of appeals from disciplinary actions and in the conduct of other appeals or investigations authorized under these rules or the merit system law, the board or the chairman of the board may delegate responsibility for the conduct of investigations and the hearing of appeals provided under any section of the law to a member of the board or to a hearing officer designated by the board. The hearing officer shall have the power to administer oaths, subpoena witnesses, and compel the production of records pertinent to any hearing or investigation. The hearing officer may take any action in connection with the hearing or investigation which the board itself is authorized to take by law other than making the final determination, decision or appropriate order. When a hearing has been completed, the individual board member or the hearing officer who conducted the hearing shall prepare a summary of the hearing and the evidence and recommend a Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, decision and appropriate order for approval of the board. The board may adopt such recommendations in whole or in part, require the production of additional testimony, reassign the case for rehearing or may itself conduct such new or additional hearing as is deemed necessary prior to rendering a final decision (See section 36.390, RSMo). Whenever this rule uses the term Personnel Advisory Board or board, the same shall apply to a member of the board or a hearing officer who has been delegated the responsibility to conduct the investigation or hear the appeal.

REVISED STATUTES OF MISSOURI - 2000

36.370. Suspension of employees

An appointing authority may, for disciplinary purposes, suspend without pay any employee in his division for such length of time as he considers appropriate, not exceeding twenty working days in any twelve-month period except that this limitation shall not apply in the event of a terminal suspension given in conjunction with a dismissal. In case of a suspension, the director shall be furnished with a statement in writing specifically setting forth the reasons for such suspension. Upon request, a copy of such statement shall be furnished to such employee. With the approval of the director, any employee may be suspended for a longer period pending the investigation or trial of any charges against him. Any regular employee who is suspended for more than five working days shall have the right to appeal to the board as provided under section 36.390.

36.380. Dismissal of employee

An appointing authority may dismiss for cause an employee in his division occupying a position subject hereto when he considers that such action is required in the interests of efficient administration and that the good of the service will be served thereby. No dismissal of a regular employee shall take effect unless, prior to the effective date thereof, the appointing authority gives to such employee a written statement setting forth in substance the reason therefor and files a copy of such statement with the director. . . . Any regular employee who is dismissed shall have the right to appeal to the board as provided under section 36.390.

36.390. Right of appeal, procedure, regulation

5. Any regular employee who is dismissed or involuntarily demoted for cause or suspended for more than five working days may appeal in writing to the board within thirty days after the effective date thereof, setting forth in substance the employee's reasons for claiming that the dismissal, suspension or demotion was for political, religious, or racial reasons, or not for the good of the service. Upon such appeal, both the appealing employee and the appointing authority whose action is reviewed shall have the right to be heard and to present evidence at a hearing which, at the request of the appealing employee, shall be public. At the hearing of such appeals, technical rules of evidence shall not apply. After the hearing and consideration of the evidence for and against a suspension or demotion, the board shall approve or disapprove such action and in the event of a disapproval the board shall order the reinstatement of the employee to the employee's former position and the payment to the employee of such salary as the employee has lost by reason of such suspension or demotion. After the hearing and consideration of the evidence for and against a dismissal, the board shall approve or disapprove such action and may make any one of the following appropriate orders:

(1) Order the reinstatement of the employee to the employee's former position and the payment to the employee of part or all of such salary as has been lost by reason of such dismissal;

(2) Sustain the dismissal of such employee, unless the board finds that the dismissal was based upon political, social, or religious reason, in which case it shall order the reinstatement of the employee to the employee's former position and the payment to the employee of such salary as has been lost by reason of such dismissal;

(3) Except as provided in subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection, the board may sustain the dismissal, but may order the director to recognize reemployment rights for the dismissed employee pursuant to section 36.240, in an appropriate class or classes, or may take steps to effect the transfer of such employee to an appropriate position in the same or another division of service.

(b) Mismanagement, a gross waste of funds or abuse of authority, or a substantial and specific danger to public health or safety, if the disclosure is not specifically prohibited by law; or

(2) Require any such employee to give notice to the supervisor or appointing authority prior to making any such report.

3. This section shall not be construed as:

(4) Restricting or precluding disciplinary action taken against a state employee if: the employee knew the information was false; the information is closed or is confidential under the provisions of the open meetings law or any other law; or the disclosure relates to the employee's own violations, mismanagement, gross waste of funds, abuse of authority or endangerment of the public health or safety.

The appeal shall be filed with the state personnel advisory board; provided that the appeal shall be filed with the appropriate agency review board or body of nonmerit agency employers which have established appeal procedures substantially similar to those provided for merit employees in subsection 5 of section 36.390 RSMo. The appeal shall be filed within thirty days of the alleged disciplinary action. Procedures governing the appeal shall be in accordance with chapter 36, RSMo. If the board or appropriate review body finds that disciplinary action taken was unreasonable, the board or appropriate review body shall modify or reverse the agency's action and order such relief for the employee as the board considers appropriate. If the board finds a violation of this section, it may review and recommend to the appointing authority that the violator be suspended on leave without pay for not more than thirty days or, in cases of willful or repeated violations, may review and recommend to the appointing authority that the violator forfeit the violator's position as a state officer or employee and disqualify the violator for appointment to or employment as a state officer or employee for a period of not more than two years. The decision of the board or appropriate review body in such cases may be appealed by any party pursuant to law.
